It's Spooky Season here in Adult Services at New Castle Public Library! Why not SCARE up something good to read? Check out Foods to Die For: Recipes & Stories from America's Most Legendary Haunted Places by Amy Bruni or look for We Came to Welcome You by Vincent Tirado. We have a great collection of scary movies too - be sure to leave the lights on!

NCPL's cultural series "Personal Accounts of Death and Community Impact" continues in October with a gripping look into the daily operations of a coroner's office, presented by Scott Penwell, Chief Deputy Coroner of Lawrence County and Adam Chmura, Deputy Coroner of Lawrence County. Join us at 6:30 pm on Tuesday, October 22.

The team is astonished by the amazing turn out for the Grand Opening of the Youth Services Department and the Elevator held on September 13, 2024. Thank you to all who came to celebrate.

This year's Library's Finest participants will be announced soon and their fundraising campaigns will start shortly their after. This year's Finest have a goal of raising $2,000 each. Similar to last year, there will be a small fee with some programs supporting the Inspire campaign.

District Services

The New Castle District Library continues to be a cornerstone in our community by providing essential funding and resources to local libraries across Armstrong, Butler, Lawrence, and Mercer counties.

Recently, our Young Adult Librarian, Cat Huth, joined the monthly zoom virtual discussion where she spoke with attendees about the differences between Pennsylvania and Ohio library systems. Attendees also shared program ideas and activities for teens. Keep on the look out for some awesome, engaging teen programs coming up.

The library is thrilled to announce the return of its vibrant teen programming for October! We're rolling out our new "Tween Tuesday" program, specifically designed for pre-teens ages 8-12 eager to dive into creative and engaging activities. Each Tuesday, join us for hands-on workshops, fun challenges, and exciting projects that cater to every tween's interests. But that's not all! Our Spooky Terrariums workshop will let teens craft their own eerie mini-gardens, perfect for the Halloween season. Dive into the world of miniatures and terrariums, where imagination knows no bounds. For those who love gaming, our Teen Gaming Club is back, offering a space to connect with peers, compete in friendly matches, and explore the latest in gaming trends.
